Zootoo.com Gives Recognition to Pet Professionals That Give Back

Everyone knows that there are some amazing pet professionals across the nation that gives their time and resources to help shelters. Without their help, your job would be even more difficult than it already is. Zootoo developed the Zootoo Angels program to recognize the generous commitment that these services give to shelters.

Zootoo Angels recognizes services and businesses that give back to their community by helping shelters. Shelter Managers have the ability to grant Zootoo Angel Status to businesses that provide free services to their shelter.

Businesses that have Zootoo Angel status are recognized throughout Zootoo.com with Angel Wing symbols. So, when a Zootoo.com member is looking for a pet service, they will see the Angel Wings symbol, which will let them know that this pet professional helps shelters.
